

TRAINING PLAN CONSULTANCY SERVICE

Fire Industry Academy have the expertise to demystify licensing and accreditation requirements and create easy to follow training plans customised to your needs and career goals.

Understanding training jargon to work out how to comply with licensing and accreditation requirements can be confusing and time consuming. That's where our training plan service can help. Saving you time and money.

SELECT A SERVICE TO MATCH YOUR NEED

Choose from one of two different plans designed to meet your specific needs and budget.

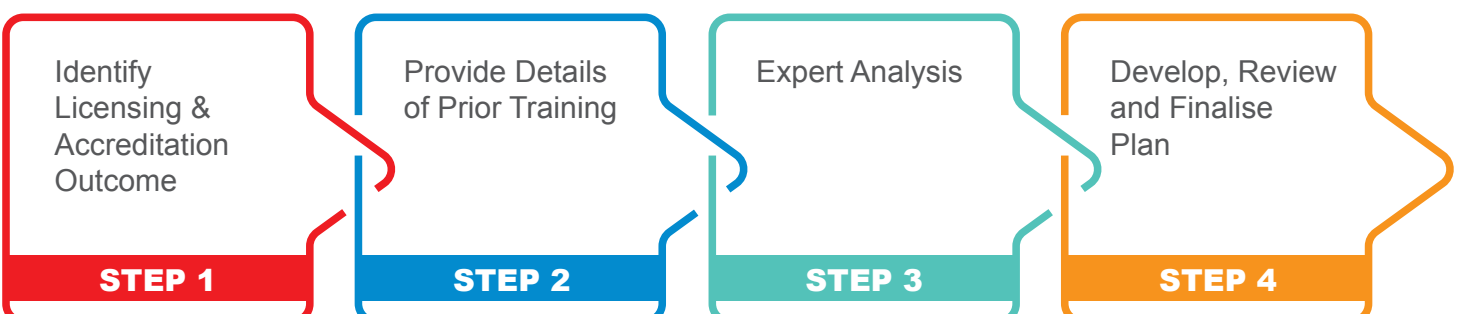

The Basic Training Plan service identifies the courses required to achieve your particular licensing and accreditation requirements and job roles.

Whilst our Advanced Training Plan service goes one step further, analysing your prior training, education history and experience, to create a plan that identifies opportunities for credit from past training and recognition of prior learning.

We also have a business training plan service that allows business owners to develop training plans for their entire workforce.

HELP IS AVAILABLE

Let us take away the pain of understanding training jargon and let you focus on running your business.
